

Manager, The Catholic Institute, Auckland

Tēnā tātou te whānau i te Hāhi Katorika. Kua wātea tēnei tūranga, hei tautoko i ngā mahi o Te Pūtahi Katorika ki Aotearoa. Tonoa mai koutou i raro i te mana o to tātou Ariki a Hehu Karaiti, a, tēnā tātou.

The Catholic Institute (TCI) delivers qualifications in theology, religious education, pastoral ministry and leadership to teachers in Catholic schools, pastoral ministers and those in leadership roles in Catholic organisations.

We need an energetic, credible and well-organised leader for TCI's Auckland operation.

This is a new role, following recent staffing changes.

The ideal person will offer skills in communication, promotion and relationship management, and be an engaging advocate for TCI in the Auckland diocese. Sound skills in administration, organisation and quality management are also important.

Active participation in the Catholic church is essential, along with a commitment to our vision of an informed Catholic laity and a qualified Catholic workforce. It would be an advantage to have relationships within the Māori and/or Pasifika communities in Auckland and a commitment to the values of Te Tiriti o Waitangi. <http://www.tci.ac.nz/vision>

Success in the role will feature high-trust relationships with Catholic leaders in Auckland, a consistent quality experience for our students and an effective voice for Auckland in our decision-making.

If this sounds like you, call, text or email Gerald Scanlan, TCI Director, for a confidential discussion and further details: g.scanlan@tci.ac.nz or 021 375292.
